

The Lipo B Injection

One Lipotropic B12 Injection Contains:

- 10 mg Methionine (essential amino acid)
- 20 mg Choline Chloride (water soluble vitamin)
- 20 mg Inositol (vitamin like substance)
- 1 mg Chromium Picolinate (essential trace mineral)
- 1 mg Vitamin B12 = Hydroxocobalamin (water soluble vitamin)

Energy Booster

Vitamin B12 increases your body's energy production by being involved in the metabolism of every cell of the human body converting nutrients into energy! In addition, Vitamin B12 enhances the formation of red blood cells to efficiently deliver more oxygen throughout the entire body. Vitamin B6 is a coenzyme facilitator booster to the body's Vitamin B-12 metabolism increasing your energy production even more!

Fat Emulsifier

Choline and Methionine are fat burners! They help the body to quickly break down and emulsify fats and cholesterol so that they cannot stick to the arterial walls and therefore move quickly out of our body via the digestive system. Bye-Bye Fat!!!

Blood Sugar Levels Normalizer

Chromium Picolinate regulates insulin to metabolism carbohydrates promoting weight loss by increasing lean muscle mass and reducing fat mass. In addition, Chromium Picolinate significantly diminish the cravings for starchy and sugar-laden foods. No more carb cravings!

Cholesterol Reducer

Chromium Picolinate lowers the level of LDL or "bad" cholesterol and triglycerides. Choline regulates blood lipid levels by efficiently removing bad cholesterol from the bloodstream preventing cardiovascular disease!

Liver Detoxifier

Methionine, Inositol, and Choline prevent liver damage by quickly metabolizing and ridding fats and other harmful toxins like drugs and alcohol from the body. Preventing fats and toxins from collecting in the liver improves weight loss and reduces the risk of fatty liver disease!

Mood Enhancer

Choline is the precursor molecule for the neurotransmitter involved in boosting brain function decreasing mood changes. Inositol lowers anxiety and depression symptoms by regulating serotonin levels resulting in a calm mindset. Ahhhhh.
